

Pender Ventures is seeking a dedicated Venture Capital Intern for placement from September 2021 through December 2021, to assist the investment team with industry research, deal flow screening, special projects and general research support. Pender Ventures, a brand of PenderFund Capital Management Ltd. 'Pender', is one of the largest investors in early stage technology companies in Western Canada with approximately $100 million invested across 23 investments. Our Venture Capital intern will gain experience through:

- Conducting in-depth sector analysis on current trends in various technology sectors
- Assisting with due-diligence efforts on prospective investments
- Performing other projects relating to the Venture Capital team

This is an excellent opportunity for a candidate pursuing an undergraduate degree in business, STEM or design. The successful candidate will have:

- A strong interest in the fields of investment and technology, or entrepreneurship
- A basic understanding of financial statements
- Proficiency in MS Office, and Slack, and some familiarity with CRMs is a plus.
- A self-starting attitude, creativity, high motivation and the ability to prioritize and multi-task
- Curiosity about how businesses work, resourcefulness and critical thinking skills
- The ability to focus on details, complete tasks thoroughly and accurately
- A team orientation and desire to work in a fast-paced environment
- Strong verbal and written communication, administrative and organizational skills

If you are interested in the world of investing and looking for opportunities to network within the venture capital industry, we'd love to hear from you.

Candidates can apply by emailing a resume and cover letter to careers@penderventures.com. Salary and terms are negotiable. We will accept applications as long as this posting appears on the Pender Ventures website. We thank all those who apply, however only shortlisted candidates will be contacted for an interview. Students must be Canadian citizens, permanent residents, or persons to whom refugee protection has been conferred under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act.

Pender is an equal opportunities employer that celebrates diversity. All candidates; regardless of gender, race, sexual orientation, religious beliefs or disability, are encouraged to apply.
